THQMA MEMBERSHIP PROCESS

---

The following is an outline of our membership process:

- Contact our club secretary at secretary@thqma.com to complete a THQMA membership application and pay $50 club dues – you must also pay $50 dues for each alternate handler added to your USAC membership
- Complete a USAC license registration online at www.USAC25license.com and pay USAC dues
- Receive welcome letter and USAC licensing card
  - USAC cards will be mailed to local club secretary for distribution
- Attend club meetings on the second Thursday of each month March – November, and specially held club meetings as announced.
- Become familiar with track rules, track schedule, USAC rules and racing procedures.
- Stay in the know with email, text alerts and Facebook. THQMA also has Twitter and Instagram accounts.
- Other fees:
  - $5.00 Race Director Fee on nights that we have a hired race director
  - $100.00 option parking fee
    - Annual parking fee
    - Allows access to electricity and parking space for the year
    - Spaces are reserved and based on club seniority
    - Spaces are selected at the January meeting, and then first come first serve after that.
    - You may park in an available space that has not been reserved, but you may not access the electricity without paying for the space. If this space becomes reserved by another member, you will not be able to continue to park there.
